

Lemon In Limoncello

Francoli USA, Inc.

Lemon In Limoncello

Profile

A lemon liqueur created from natural spirits mixed with a grand infusion of several varieties of lemons, typically from the Amalfi Coast of Italy. Known for its remarkable digestive qualities, Limoncello is traditionally served following a meal

Objective

With no current leader in the limoncello category, Francoli USA wants to provide a limoncello with a great value and unsurpassed quality. By producing and importing the limoncello, Francoli USA cuts out the middle man and can offer restaurants and retail shops the best valued limoncello.

Lemon in Limoncello

30% alcohol and containing 100% natural flavors, Lemon in Limoncello is composed of a mixture of neutral spirits of grain origin and an infusion of different varieties of lemons from the Amalfi coast.

Lemon in Limoncello is primarily served straight, chilled or with ice.
It also goes well with fish dishes, on top of ice creams and fruit salads, and is excellent served after meals, as it cleanses the palate and leaves the mouth pleasantly perfumed.
